Consider These

Consistent giving facilitates consistent ministry.

Abundant grace brings abundant blessing and spurs abundant ministry.

The work of God is to be done by the people of God giving according to the will of God.

There are four steps to accomplishment: plan purposefully; prepare purposefully; prepare prayerfully; proceed positively; pursue persistently.

Reflect

We increase our ability, stability, responsibility when we increase our sense of accountability to God.

We may not be responsible for many of the things that happen to us, but we are responsible for the way we react when they do happen.

Prayer gives strength to the weak, faith to the fainthearted, and courage to the fearful.

Safety and Security

For the safety and security of everyone, your backpack or bag may be inspected. Thanks for your cooperation!

First Baptist Church of Tempe Church Action Meeting – April 14, 2024 Results

The congregation of First Baptist Church of Tempe has elected Pastor John Heston as our full-time Senior Pastor with a 97% positive vote.

Pastor Heston is a seasoned Pastor with over 25 years of experience of increasing responsibility in church leadership. He is committed to shepherding individuals to Christ, engaging the community in local and global outreach, and has a strong focus on discipleship. John will be transitioning from his current position to full-time ministry at FBCT over the next couple of months.

We welcome John and his family to the ministry here and look forward to seeing the plans God has for us through Pastor Heston.

Hebrews 2:13

April 2024 God Stories

“Trust in Him at all times, O people;

Pour out your heart before Him; God is a refuge for us. Selah.”

Psalms 62:8

1. Pray, Pour Out Your Heart, and Trust God. After much prayer and consideration, the FBCT Deacon Board unanimously recommends Pastor John Heston to the FBCT family as a candidate for the Senior Pastor position. They ask that you continue to join them in prayer as on Sunday, April 14, 2024 a vote will be held in each worship service to determine if Pastor Heston will be the next Senior Pastor for FBCT. Pray for our FBC Family that we would pray and then trust God's leading.
2. Trusting God to Use You to Build His Kingdom. Damaris Beltran spent her spring break in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico building a roof, painting walls, apply stucco, mixing cement, spooling wire, and shoveling dirt. She did this to show God's love to the poor. Damaris says, “But it is much more than that. This is an opportunity to share Jesus. I am fluent in Spanish. I have a unique opportunity to talk to people and share my faith, and not just do the physical labor. I am only 15 years old, and although I don't have all the answers or know the Bible as well as I should, I can still plant seeds. I plant seeds by sharing what I do know, I plant seeds by loving people, showing kindness, playing with the little kids, and developing relationships with the families we are helping. My favorite part is always connecting with people, talking to them and sharing my life with them. I plan on continuing these trips as long as God allows me to!” Pray that God uses these mission trips in Damaris' life to not only change the lives in Mexico but also to change her life. Great job, Damaris!

3. Church Planters Pray, Pour Out Their Hearts and Trust God!

Pastor Peter and Trish Molina, FBCT's church planters are seeing fruit from their ministry. Pastor Peter writes, "Months ago, I shared a story about one young adult named Antonio. He was seeking help from witchcraft books at the Guadalupe library to "cast spells" on his own family. A couple of weeks ago, by God's grace, I led him through the sinner's prayer. Now, he is hungry for God's Word and growth. Antonio's decision to accept Christ's free gift of forgiveness was made after many conversations. Each Friday I asked him how he was doing and he was an open book ready for someone to dive in and help him peel back parts of his story like an onion while moving forward as he figures out how to turn the next page." Pray and trust God with the Molina's.

4. Women's Retreat Will Prepare You to Trust a Sovereign God.

"Life is Like a Box of Chocolates" – you don't know what you will get. This weekend without responsibility is filled with lots of laughter, freedom to be silly and the assurance of being accepted. It's listening, sharing, and praying. It's building new friendships and rekindling the old. Most importantly it's growing in your personal relationship with Jesus. It's Women's Retreat! Ladies, we need each other, the church needs us. Most importantly we all need Jesus. Can't wait to see you September 13-15! Look for Kris Williamson on Sundays for more information.

5. Praise God! People Want to Trust God Together at FBCT!

That is right. It is exciting to see the increased interest in belonging to a family of like-minded believers. When you belong to FBC-T, you are saying that you are committed to worshipping, serving and encouraging the family here. You, too, can join FBC-T. You, too, can serve the family and trust God together. Our pastors would be glad to help you through the steps to membership.

6. Committed to Truth and Trusting God. The 6:15am Men's Monday morning group taught by Greg Jones is doing an in-depth study called "The Truth Project." Praise God for this faithful group of men who welcomes any new man, who studies meticulously, who shows up faithfully and who are all committed to living a life for Jesus by trusting Him and by defending the Gospel.
7. The More You Understand – The More You Trust. One person gave this feedback after attending the "How to Read/Apply the Bible" special Sunday Bible class: "I have benefited greatly from the new class. I am learning homiletics." Austin Erwin has enjoyed teaching this material at FBC on Sunday mornings. Praise God for Austin. Pray that Austin keeps teaching this special class at FBC, so more people can grow in their ability to read/study the Bible and apply it to their lives.
8. When You Trust God – You Serve God. For the last couple of years Rodney Imhoff has showed up every Wednesday and has spent about two hours emptying, cleaning and sanitizing every single trash can (approximately 60) at FBCT. This volunteer service saves the church a ton of money. It sounds like a small thing but Rodney serves God and you in a mighty way. Please tell Rodney thank you when you see him on Sunday.
9. You Pray and then You Trust God with Your Children. Pastor Rob did that and now he is beyond thrilled. In February he had an amazing opportunity. Pastor Rob writes: "I had the tremendous privilege of baptizing my son and soon-to-be daughter-in-law." Not only did Pastor Rob get to baptize them but he and his wife Melissa enjoy watching Caleb and Sylvia becoming an active part of FBCT. Pastor Rob says, "It is amazing to see your kids make decisions like this."

10. When you pray God hears you! Our music leadership team has been diligently praying that God would send them a guitarist for our services. Pastor Rob writes, “Last week I was introduced to Collin who plays acoustic and is also a vocalist. What a blessing.”
11. They Long to Be Rooted and Built Up in Jesus. God is giving our women a desire to grow in spiritual maturity. Tuesday morning’s Connection now has two break-out studies. The Thursday evening study is rock strong. And, our Sunday morning ladies are studying about Jesus’ I Am statements. Women are growing by studying and discovering what the Bible says and means, by having dynamic Bible discussions, and by learning to apply the Word to their own lives. You, too, can mature in your faith! Stop by the Women’s Ministry Table in the hall and chat with Kris Williamson about available studies.
12. I Trusted Christ at a Young Age. In 2000 my parents and I moved from rural NY to AZ. The big city intimidated me, Here I met the father of my 3 beautiful children. He was abusive and involved with drugs. It got so bad. One day I really wanted to leave so I went into my bedroom, dropped to my knees and really talked and prayed to the Lord to please help me escape my situation. The next morning, I received a phone call to say he was incarcerated.
13. Celebrating with Graduates. FBCT has the privilege of hosting the 2024 Phoenix Seminary graduation May 4th. They will be using our worship center for their graduation ceremony. FBCT’s Mindelle Will and Alicia Padilla will both receive their master’s degrees that day. Congratulations, Mindelle and Alicia!

“And again, ’ I will put My trust in Him. ’ And again, ‘Behold, I and the children whom God has given Me. ’”

Charitable Donations from IRA's

If you are over 70½ and have assets held in an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) the following information regarding Required Minimum Distributions (hereafter noted simply as RMD) may be very pertinent to you. This information was taken from various sources believed to be reliable:

There are some extra tax benefits to transferring your RMD to the charity, rather than withdrawing your RMD and then donating to a charity. As with any financial subject, the government could change the rules, so it is always best to check with your accountant or tax advisor before proceeding.

How much can I transfer from my IRA to charity? Can I transfer more than my RMD?

Yes, if you are 70½ or older, you can transfer up to $100,000 to charity tax-free each year -- even if that's more than your RMD. The money counts as your RMD but isn't included in your adjusted gross income.

I'll be 70½ in a few months. Can I give my RMD to charity now?

No--you have to wait until you are at least one day over 70½ years of age to make the tax-free transfer to charity.

Can I give do this with my 401(k) funds as well?

No. You can only make the tax-free transfer from an IRA. Therefore, you cannot make such a tax-free distribution from a 401(k), 401(b), 401(a), or any other ERISA account.

Can I withdraw the money from my IRA and then write a check to charity, or do I need to transfer the money directly?

The rules are very strict in this regard. You must have the custodian of your IRA transfer the money directly from your IRA to the non-profit for it to count as the tax-free transfer.

Each custodian has slightly different procedures on how they do this but the funds must go directly out of the IRA and directly to the charity.

It is extremely important that you notify the non-profit that you are donating to them so that they will know 'who' the donor is! It also helps to provide the non-profit's ID number, exact mailing address, phone number, and a person that the mail is to be directed to. For example, in the case of a donation to First Baptist Church of Tempe, you would tell the custodian of your IRA the following information:

First Baptist Church of Tempe ID:	86-0137714
To the attention of:	Pam Rosendale
Pam's phone number:	480-839-0926
Mailed to:	4525 S. McClintock Drive Tempe, AZ 85282

If you have check-writing privileges for your IRA, you can write a check to the charity but be sure to alert the charity so it knows the contribution came from you!

So which is better: the tax-free transfer or the charitable deduction?

If you do not itemize, then the tax-free transfer is nearly always more advantageous to the donor. Just remember to alert your tax preparer as the custodian of your IRA will still issue a 1099R. You need to show the tax preparer the donation-letter you received from the non-profit to prove that the charity received the funds.

*Key members of the Finance Committee can offer you wisdom. Contact Pastor Roger Ball as well. Remember, the above is tax information and is not to be considered tax advice. As always, consult your professional CPA, lawyer, or tax preparer for information about your specific tax situation. ****
